August 2020

Dear Friends,

As August begins, I notice several markers in our church and in the world. We are entering the fifth month of decreased activity and increased anxiety around the COVID-19 pandemic. We are entering the third month since the death of George Floyd and a renewed awakening in our nation to the realities of systemic racism. We are entering the third month of summer vacation for our students and teachers as they prepare to return to school, unsure of what that return will look like.

As we mark all of these significant things with anxiety and anticipation, I am also aware of another important marker for our congregation. On August 15, 2002, Elizabeth McNair Ayscue began serving First Presbyterian Church as its pastor. In those 18 years, the positive impacts of her ministry in this place have been noticeable. The congregation has thrived, both in growth and in faithful discipleship. Compassionate care for our neighbors in Stanly County and around the world has become a cornerstone of life and ministry at First Presbyterian Church. Faithful and creative worship has engaged many of you and drawn you into deeper connection with God. You have been taught, visited, cared for, prayed for, and loved by Elizabeth. You have grown in your love of God, love of one another, and love for Elizabeth. Her ministry in this church has truly been a blessing for the congregation and, indeed, for Albemarle.

As we prepare for Elizabeth's retirement at the end of August, I am incredibly thankful for the time that I have had with her as my colleague. I encourage you to join me in celebrating her time in this place. Thank God for the gift of her calling to First Presbyterian Church. Thank her for all that she has done. Wish her well as she moves into the next phase of her journey of discipleship. As we prepare for this parting, the words of Philippians 1 ring in my mind: I thank God every time I remember you.

Grace and Peace,

Matt

The material for this online discussion will be selected devotionals that our congregational members have written over the last few months. Each Monday, you will receive an email with the selected devotional for the week. Discussion will focus on the significance and application of the scripture. Topics will include how this challenging time impacts our faith, our spiritual gifts, our compassion, and our charity. This should be a great opportunity for Bible study and connecting with a cross-section of our church family. If you need help with Zoom, contact the church office (704-982-2722). Please email Matt Drumheller (mdrumheller@fpcalbemarle.org) or Catherine Moeller (mattandcatherine@hotmail.com) to say you are interested or need more information. Please join us!

Presbytery of Charlotte Legacy Award Congratulations to Dr. Bill Jolly

The Presbytery of Charlotte recently announced its 2020 Legacy Award winners, and our Bill Jolly was one of those who was honored. The Legacy Award honors senior adults who actively live out their faith to the church and community in ways that bear witness to Christ. These people serve as role models to other generations, and their own, and demonstrate how to live fully in their later years.

For more than fifty years, Dr. Jolly has consistently and ably led and served at First Presbyterian Church. Having served numerous terms on Session, Bill has met every challenge with wisdom and knowledge, navigating difficult circumstances, and working with others for consensus. Most recently, he chaired the committee that established the Columbarium, housed in the chapel. As unofficial historian, Dr. Jolly has the uncanny ability to remember details of every major decision made in the life of the church and has led the church at many pivotal moments. He is a perennially popular Sunday School teacher, whose wealth of knowledge of the scriptures and church history, enhance the learning experience.

His nomination for the Legacy Award concludes with these words:

Dr. Jolly continues to bear witness to the good news of Jesus Christ in his love for his community, his family, and his church. He is a shining example of service to the church. His legacy to First Presbyterian Church is one of calm, passionate, dedicated service to the church of Jesus Christ.

His is a remarkable legacy! Congratulations to Dr. Bill Jolly.

October Presbytery Meeting

First Presbyterian Church was scheduled to host the Presbytery of Charlotte's stated meeting on October 27. Due to COVID-19 concerns, presbytery leadership is reasonably certain that this meeting will need to take place online through Zoom. Because of this, our church will not be responsible for its regular hosting duties. We hope to reschedule this meeting for some time in the near future.

I hope everyone has had a great summer and is ready to get back to school, whatever that may look like! Youth will continue its programming virtually during the month of August. Our top priority is everyone's safety, and we hope to see your faces on screen! Check our Instagram page (@fpcalbemarleyouth) for more information.

ZOOM DISCUSSION ON TUESDAY, AUGUST 25 AT 7:00 P.M.

Our congregation, along with many others, is continuing a challenging journey of educating ourselves about systemic racism in America. In August, we will be watching a documentary called Race: The Power of an Illusion.

This documentary consists of three hour-long segments examining the biological and social realities of race. You can watch this series for $5.00 through Vimeo (an online video streaming service).
